

MICHIGAN STATE
UNIVERSITY

This presentation is being generously co-sponsored by:

CENTER FOR GREAT LAKES CULTURE

UNIVERSITY
LIBRARIES
COLLOQUIA
SERIES

<http://www.lib.msu.edu/events/colloqui.htm>

Wednesday, April 7
4:00p.m.
W449 Main Library
Free Admission

Visitor parking is available in the MSU Stadium parking lot on Red Cedar Road, south of the library. For directions, call 353-8700.

Persons with disabilities may request accommodations by calling Birdie Beckwith at 432-6123 x137 by March 31.

Requests received after that date will be met when possible.

The Main Library is wheelchair accessible.

MSU is an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity institution.

Anishinaabe Arts of Quillwork on Birchbark

DR. ADRIANA GRECI GREEN

Interim Director of the Nokomis Learning Center and Visiting Assistant Professor at MSU

Dr. Green will give a multi-media presentation on the Ojibwa and Odawa arts of quillwork decoration on birchbark, which is typical of Michigan and the Great Lakes region.

Dr. Green's research research interests include Native American arts, culture and history, with particular focus on the Plains and Great Lakes regions. Green received a 2003 Visiting Scholars Award from the Center for Great Lakes Culture.

For more information on the Center for Great Lakes Culture please see its website at <http://greatlakes.msu.edu/>